Parents and Students:

I wanted to share the following information about Thursday night's game.

- Because it is homecoming we will be performing movements one through three of our show before the game around 6:30 p.m.
- At halftime we will perform as part of the homecoming court
- Because of the performance before the game, we are moving the report time to 4:45 p.m.
- We will be wearing our black cat show shirt again under our uniform.

We are looking forward to finally being able to show you more of the field show!

OMI Update

We wanted to share some additional information about sponsorships for OMI for those parents actively looking for advertisers. Getting some advertisers lined up is so important for us to offset judges costs and make this a profitable event for our band. We are up to 12 bands so this will be a very large event with a lot of people in attendance!

Here is a link of the locations that have already been contacted. If you contact someone please add them to the list so we don't harass the same companies. We are sharing this list with OW parents.

Here is information about companies that supported the purchase of the video board that we need to not compete with:

Here is an updated flyer for advertising. The last one I sent out had a typo.
